

KINGIAN NONVIOLENCE CONFLICT RECONCILIATION

TWO-DAY CORE INTRODUCTION IN KINGIAN NONVIOLENCE

This Core Introduction teaches the Six Principles of Kingian Nonviolence, as well as the philosophy and methodology of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s nonviolent social change as applied to a broad spectrum of individual, group, institutional and systemic conflicts.

The training is ideal for teacher, students, counselors, social workers, human-rights activists, business managers, law enforcement, health care workers, clergy and all those interested in acquiring the leadership skills necessary for promoting peace, nonviolence and community building.
