

KINGIAN NONVIOLENCE CONFLICT RECONCILIATION

INTRODUCTION TO KINGIAN NONVIOLENCE

This Core Introduction teaches the Six Principles of Kingian Nonviolence, as well as the philosophy and methodology of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s nonviolent social change as applied to a broad spectrum of individual, group, institutional and systemic conflicts.

The training is ideal for teachers, students, counselors, social workers, human-rights activists, business managers, law enforcement professionals, health care workers, clergy and all those interested in acquiring the leadership skills necessary for promoting peace, nonviolence and community building.

“This is the great new problem of mankind. We have inherited a large house, a great “world house” in which we have to live together — black and white, Easterner and Westerner, Gentile and Jew, Catholic and Protestant, Moslem and Hindu — a family unduly separated in ideas, culture and interests, who, because we can never again live apart, must learn somehow to live with each other in peace”
