

Connecticut Center for Nonviolence presents:

SONGS OF FREEDOM SING OUT!

Honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Many people, one voice, everyone invited to sing for FREEDOM! Traditional and contemporary, Freedom Songs led by, Victoria Christgau, Founder of Peace is Possible Chorus, the Martin Luther King, Commemoration of Litchfield County and the CT Center for Nonviolence (CTCN).

Joining her will be award winning singer, Leslie Bird from Hartford, ThinKING Nonviolence Youth Leaders and members of the CTCN Training Team from across the state. Renew your commitment to Justice and Peace, learn about Kingian Nonviolence in CT and enjoy the profound experience of community music making.

All ages and singing experience welcome.
Children must be accompanied by an adult.

For more information:

Call: 860.206.7029

Email: info@ctnonviolence.org

Visit: ctnonviolence.org

January 14, 2018

3:00–5:00pm

Suggested Donation:

$20. Adult, $15. Seniors & Students

Children 12 and under- free will donation

All funds directly support the essential work of the Connecticut Center for Nonviolence

Community Room

129 Main Street

Woodbury, CT

203.263.4868

newmorn.com

New Morning
Market
& Vitality
Center

